DOMAINE EDEM
ELENA DE MENDOZA

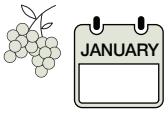

NON-ALCOHOLIC

Created in honor of Elena Maza, Nicolás Catena's wife, for whom the family's first ever non-alcoholic wine was developed. She was looking for something lighter than traditional wine yet enjoyable as an aperitif before dinner.

The Catena Institute of Wine was tasked by Laura Catena to carry out this creative project, combining sensory analysis knowledge, wine chemistry expertise, human panel data, and the best technology to make these wines.

MADE FROM THE HIGHEST QUALITY CHARDONNAY GRAPES

OUR PROCESS

1. GRAPES

Chardonnay grapes are sourced from our mountain vineyards in the Uco Valley.

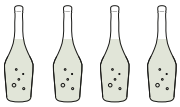

2. HARVEST

The verjus is made from early harvest grapes, collected during the first week of January and is kept cold throughout the winter.

3. BOTANICAL INFUSION

In June, the winemaking team at the Catena Institute of Wine infuses botanicals.

4. BUBBLES

Once the master blend is defined, the process of injecting fine bubbles begins.

GRAPE JUICE · CINNAMON · CLOVE · ORANGE PEEL · WORMWOOD

"The wine has a powerful mousse and is a mid old gold colour. The nose is pungent and packed with "winter spice" aromas: clove, cinnamon and mace. The palate is sweet but with high acidity providing balance. Surprisingly the overall texture on the palate is light and fresh. There is a lovely apple crumble impression on the finish. As Josh said, definitely a "speed bump" wine that makes you sit up and take notice."
